

OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

Green's School.

October 16th, 1911.

It has been a good while since I have written to the dear old Gazette, from this part of the country.

Cotton picking is about finished and hauling corn is the order of the day.

The soaking rain that fell here Wednesday and Thursday was well needed and pleased young and old. Frank Seidenberger and son Rudolph made a business trip to the "county capital" last week.

Otto Renken left last Thursday for Stockdale. Otto is expecting to buy a fine buggy horse there.

Arthur Rabe spent Thursday night with August Winkewerder.

The dance at Sunset school last Saturday night was well attended by young and old.

The dance at Henkhaus Saturday night was well attended and everybody enjoyed a good time.

Miss Adele Mewes spent last Monday and Tuesday with her Uncle and Aunt Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Plato.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mewes spent the afternoon Sunday with Prof. and Mrs. Martin Ruppel.

Oscar Thompson attended preaching Sunday night at Shiner.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Derrich and family visited with Ad Rabe and wife.

Listen at the wedding bell's ringing here this week and next. Hope they will soon ring for "Blue Eyed Boy."

Mrs. Adam Stock celebrated her birthday Sunday afternoon many relatives and friends were present.

Willie Bohmann and John B. Ruppel spent Sunday with Yoakum friends.

Egnes Hubert and wife spent Sunday here with home folks.

Well as my letter is getting very long, I must close, else the waste basket might catch it. So I must skidoo, wishing the editor and its many readers much success.

BLUE EYED BOY.

Shiner, R. F. D. 4.

October 16th, 1911.

Dear old Gazette: Here I come again with some news from our burg.

A nice rain fell at this place last night with a cool norther.

The Kokernot school will begin with Mr. Hugo Hummel as teacher. We wish him much success.

Mr. F. D. Kokernot spent a few days last week on his ranch.

Mr. H. B. Littlefield spent a few days at Cost last week.

Mr. L. L. Konvicha celebrated his twentieth birthday last Saturday and many of his friends came and had a fine dance at night with plenty of San Antonio water.

Mr. Willie Farich, Anton Darnak and F. Jaks Jr. left Sunday for Harwood to attend the wedding of Miss Annie Breitschof.

Mr. Mike Pesek Jr. left today for Yorktown on business.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hamon of Dreyer spent last Sunday with Mr. R. H. Littlefield.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Pesek Sr.

and Mr. and Mrs. John Barosh and wife spent a few days at Oakforest last week.

Mr. S. Jaks Jr. passed through our burg last Sunday.

As the mail carrier is coming will say bye bye.

BLUE EYED B. S.

Sunset Letter.

Here I come again to chat awhile with the Gazette.

A good rain fell here last week has done good for the gardens.

Some sad news fled through this neighborhood last Tuesday morning that Mr. Henry Hohlt was dead. He is survived by four children, three daughters and one son.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Oltmann are the proud parents of a fine baby boy.

The dance at Henkhaus last Saturday night was a grand one, and all who attended had a good time.

Mr. F. Guettner is rebuilding his residence near Dilworth.

Mr. Peter Antrich is the owner of a fine buggy horse.

Misses Emilie and Sophie Hohlt were in your city last Saturday evening.

Mr. Joe Derrich and family left for Moulton City Sunday morning.

The "Big Fair," which is to be held at Gonzales on October 25-26 and 27 is said to be better than ever was before, so don't forget about it, and be sure to go.

There was a grand dance given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Matula last Saturday night, and all who were present reported that the dance was grand. Misses Walshaks of Dilworth attended and many others of a farther distance.

As news is scarce and I am tired, will come to an end.

SOMEBODY'S DARLING.

Green's Community.

(Delayed from last week.)

Hello Editor and readers. Will you let "Green's Sport" chat with you awhile again?

A fresh norther blew up Saturday morning and is settling the heat for awhile.

Those that have returned home again from their trip to Galveston last Tuesday morning, are well pleased with what they saw.

Miss Selma Mewes has been visiting relatives the past week at Shiner.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mewes have been visiting relatives and friends the past week at Floresville.

Frank Billmack is visiting friends at Victoria this week.

Arthur Rabe and Louie and Anton Billmack and Willie Mewes made a flying trip to your city Sunday afternoon.

Arthur Rabe and sister spent Saturday night with Misses Adele Selma and Clara Mewes.

Ernest Zimmermann the "one band man" furnished sweet music at Sunset Saturday night.

George Kruse and family visited with Henry Flessner and family Sunday.

John Kakos has been working his young horse single to the buggy.

Willie Koether visited near Dickson school Saturday.

Willie Behlen and "best—" were out buggy riding Sunday afternoon.

As I am tired and sleepy, must leave you all, so bye bye.

GREEN'S SPORT.

Wied News.

We are having some cool weather now which refreshes the atmosphere.

Chas. Eggert made a business trip to Shiner Monday.

The feast and ball at the Wied hall last Tuesday was well attended, about 75 tickets being sold, music was furnished.

Several from here attended the king-fest at Witting Saturday.

Arthur Vogt of Uvalde county is visiting relatives here.

Ed Fertsch and Henry Reimshneider, with their families passed through here in their autos to attend the king-fest at Appelts Hill.

Ed Schroeder made a business trip to Yorktown.

Mrs. Bertha Earthmans school started last Monday with over 50 scholars in attendance.

Several from here must go to Hallettsville this week as witnesses in the Foley trial.

MADURO.

Yoakum News, Route 6.

Will send in a few lines to the dear Gazette, as it is called.

We had a big rain in our community, and it still looks as if it might rain some more.

The rain was good for the gardens.

Mr. Joe Onhaizer and family visited the home of F. Marsh Sunday.

The farmer's butcher club held a meeting at the Moore's school Sunday.

A few new buildings in Yoakum will soon be completed.

Mr. Hermann Coldewey in company with Henry Bane bought the blacksmith shop from Mr. Schulze. Wish them much success.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Thoms and daughter Helen of Nixon are here visiting the families of Mr. Joe Brosch and F. Thoms.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Erdel and son Louis and Miss Mollie, made a trip to High Hill.

Mr. Joe Brosch is doing some more carpentering work to his home. This makes it one of the nicest homes here.

Mrs. George Suhr died at her home Tuesday. Mrs. Suhr had been sick for several years. She leaves her husband and four children.

Mr. F. Peter made a trip to Flatonia last week.

Well Autumn is here and winter will soon begin.

News is scarce so must say goodbye to all.
